Webinar Description: Join Heather as she discusses when and how to find the right PT, how to handle Medicare, and what she recommends in adaptive equipment and how to help your partner.

About Heather Cianci, PT, MS, GCS: Heather is a Geriatric Clinical Specialist and founding therapist at the Dan Aaron Parkinson's Rehabilitation Center (Good Shepherd/Penn Partners) at Pennsylvania Hospital in Philadelphia, PA. Heather received her Bachelor's in Physical Therapy from the University of Scranton in Scranton, PA and her Master's in Gerontology from Saint Joseph's University in Philadelphia. She has been a physical therapist since 1994, with the majority of those years dedicated to working with patients with movement disorders.

Heather authored a chapter on rehabilitation strategies for the 2nd edition of What If It's Not Alzheimer's?: A Caregiver's Guide to Dementia - With Vital Information on Frontotemporal Degeneration (FTD). She teaches about rehabilitation and movement disorders to physical therapy students at several Philadelphia area universities. Heather also frequently lectures at support groups, patient and care-partner conferences, and continuing education courses for therapists such as those sponsored by the Pennsylvania Physical Therapy Association, the Parkinson Disease Foundation, and CurePSP.

Heather is a Board member of CurePSP—the Foundation for PSP/CBD and Related Brain Diseases—as well as the Chair of their Medical Professional Advisory Committee and member of their Board Leadership Committee. Heather has lectured at numerous local and national PSP symposiums and helped to launch the Comprehensive Outpatient Atypical Parkinsonism Evaluation (COPE) Clinic at the University of Pennsylvania's Parkinson Disease and Movement Disorder Center.
